STATE PLAN UNDER TITLE XIX OF THE SOCIAL SECURITY ACT

State: Kansas

MORE LIBERAL METHODS OF TREATING RESOURCES
UNDER THE SECTION 1902(f)(2) OF THE ACT

Section 1902 (f) State

Non-Section 1902 (f) State

I. More liberal resource exemptions

- For the aged, blind and disabled, if a person enters an institutional living arrangement for long term care, the home shall retain its exempt status for 3 months (including the month of entrance) provided the person does not intend to return to the home and there is no spouse or other dependent family member who continues to live in the home. This provision is in addition to the home exemption policies of the SSI program.
- For aged, blind and disabled individuals, personal effects and keepsakes and household equipment and furnishings are exempt without regard to value.
- For aged, blind disabled individuals, one car is exempt regardless of value. Additional vehicles may be exempt if shown to be essential for employment of self-support, used as the family's home, for medical treatment, or if specially equipped for use by a handicapped person.
- For aged, blind and disabled individuals, property (both real and personal) which is essential for employment or self-employment or which produces income consistent with its fair market value.

1

- For all eligibility groups all funds in IDA accounts funded under the Assets for Independence Act are excluded.

II. More liberal methodologies for treatment of resources

- For aged, blind and disabled individuals, if an individual owns excess nonexempt real or personal property (other than liquid cash assets), assistance can be provided up to 9 months while the individual is making a bona fide effort to dispose of the property.
- For aged, blind and disabled individuals, resource value shall be viewed throughout the month and if the individual is resource eligible for 1 day in the month, he or she is eligible for the entire month.
